Late Submissions

There were a number of submissions that were turned in between 7:00pm-8:00pm on June 14th that may still be eligible for screening. Depending our programing, these films may or may not be screened at this event. Other entries were turned in as late as June 20th and may be screened, but this process is time prioritized and there is no guarantee that you film will be screened at the 27th screening. A final film program will be posted soon.
