The ever popular feature of the Detroit Windsor International Film Festival is theTech Fair.. Check out the schedule of great classes and panels..

Click here to sign up .. http://events.wayne.edu/rsvp/techfair2012/

DPTV HD Mobile Truck Tour

1-4:30PM (in front of 5057 Woodward Studios)

11:30am-1pm

Production Algebra

Mark Adler, director of the Michigan Production Alliance will present an overview of the film industry - State Hall, Rm. 113

Short Films for Online Communication

Joan Abraham, co-founder of Detroit Pockets of Cool, creating video communication for the web. - State Hall, Rm. 115 Developing a Pitch Package on a Professional Level

Instructor Christopher Bondy will offer a seminar on how to develop a professional pitch - State Hall, Rm. 117 Noon-2pm

Special Effects Makeup Artistry for Film, Video or Photography

Special effects makeup artist Dan Phillips will do a live demonstration - State Hall, Rm. 119 or 224 1- 2:30 pm

Screenwriting: Bible for Beginners

Script advisor/consultant in Canada, Wayne McLean offers a screenwriting seminar - State Hall, Rm. 111 For Directors: How to Work with Actors

Actor, director, producer and writer Christopher Bondy presents a seminar for directors- State Hall, Rm. 117 The Nuts & Bolts of Producing

Emmy-winning filmmaker Charles Cirgenski will offers overview of producing independent features - State Hall, Rm. 123 Broadcast Your Live Streaming

Video engineering specialist Gary Cendrowski demonstrate how to set up a livestreaming for web - 5057 Woodward Studios 3D/Animation

Brenda Schick will present a workshop about 3D and animation techniques - State Hall, Rm. 123 2:30 - 4

The Making of Somewhere West

Producer, director, editor and co-founder of Treefort Collective, David Marek - State Hall, Rm. 111 Music Production

Nabil "Sandman" Ansara, Jr. will showcase music production - State Hall, Rm. 113

Why Storyboard???

Jeff Jantz will offer a workshop explaining the use of storyboards in movie making - State Hall, Rm. 115 The Art Department: Playing the Part

A panel of knowledgeable professionals from the Art Dept. will answer questions - 5057 Woodward Studios Workshop: The Strategies, Pitfalls and Politics of Film Festivals

Offered by Robert Butler - State Hall, Rm. 111